

LEWISTON, Oct. 30. The Lewiston Journal's special from Farmington says that Deputy Sheriff Alonzo Sylvester has summoned a special jury to investigate the late fire. They visited the locality where the fire started and examined many witnesses. The investigation is not closed. C. W. Keyes & Co., of the Chronicle, and the publisher of the Franklin Journal and will consolidate them.

FROM BRUNSWICK.

A Boat Stolen for a Conductor. BATESVILLE, Oct. 30. Conductor H. M. Dunlap was swept from the top of his team by a gale which derelict at Lisbon Falls, and severely shaken up and bruised but no bones broken. The extent of his injuries cannot be determined at present.

TWO HUSBANDS CAPTURED.

How Detective Tracy Spotted a Little Scheme. LEWISTON, Oct. 31. Detective Tracy tonight two noted burglars to grief Saturday night, named Charles Barry and Thomas O'Brien, alias English Shogun. The former completed a three years term in the State prison last spring for breaking into Randall's clothing store. The latter is a State prisoner for his own criminal and the other is a well known criminal and has been in the Massachusetts prison for his crimes. On Thursday, in Portland, Detective Tracy overhauled the two men, together with a third, solemnizing how they might make a raise. The men left the city and Detective Tracy followed them. They took him to Fairfield.

Here they arrived Friday and the detective returned to Portland. Friday night the second house of the Maine Central Railroad, at Fairfield, was entered and a clock, chest and handbag stolen. Detective Tracy heard of the burglary and telegraphed Deputy Sheriff Hill, of Waterville, to arrest the men. He did so, finding them in the tool house of the Lockwood mill in Waterville. They were brought before Judge Stewart, of Waterville, and held, on a charge of burglary and theft, having been obtained.

FROM SAGO.

Asphyxiated by Gas. SAGO, Oct. 31. Two strangers stopped at Sago one Saturday night, registering as man and wife. This noon groaning was heard, the proprietor burst the door, found the gas escaping and both as nearly suffocated. The man is out of danger but to-night the woman has not recovered consciousness and the chances are against recovery. The names registered were John Smith and wife, who left before the proprietor burst the door. A bottle of whiskey was found on the table and a light was burning all night, and he probably blew out the gas this morning.

DAMAGE FROM LIGHTNING.

A fierce thunder storm raged here last night. The boarding block belonging to the York Manufacturing Company was struck by lightning and took fire. The loss will be about $1000. The fireman of the Portland train, it is claimed, was struck and severely affected.

FROM WINTHROP.

House Burned by Ignominious Incendiarist. WINTHROP, Oct. 30. A house in process of erection, belonging to John K. Lowell, located at the westerly extremity of the town, near the Monmouth boundary burned early this morning. Loss unknown; uninsured. The cause was either lightning or incendiary.

AN FORTUNE GOES TO THE CATS AND DOGS.

The Society with a Long Name Gets $150,000. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 30. The jury in the Weston-Bergh will case, which has been on trial seven days, returned a verdict this afternoon in favor of Bergh. By this decision Bergh's society will receive $150,000. The money to Bergh, was the rather eccentric. Waterbury lady who was frozen to death while passing through the snow on Colorado two years ago. The Westons tried to break the will on the ground of insanity.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Proposed Railroad Extension. BOSTON, Oct. 30. The stockholders of the Central Massachusetts Railroad, met this morning to consider the motion of leasing the road to the Boston & Lowell corporation. The motion was made and will be kept open for votes upon this matter until Saturday, Nov. 6. The vote of the Boston & Lowell stockholders was also taken on the subject of leasing the road. The polls will remain open one week.

Drowned at Fall River.

FALL RIVER, Oct. 30. Joseph B. Anthony, of Fall River, was drowned at Westport harbor yesterday afternoon. His body has not been recovered and is probably lost on out to sea. The deceased was formerly engaged in the insurance business in Boston.

A DOUBLE TRAGEDY.

An Engineer Takes his Life Because of a Fatal Accident. WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 31. A double tragedy occurred here last night. The engineer of the Erie Railroad, who was killed by a train, was found dead in his room. The cause of the tragedy is not yet known.

FIRE IN COAL MINES.

Nearly Three Acres of Coal Ablaze. CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Oct. 31. Fire at the Standard mine, near Connelville, Pa., which originated yesterday afternoon, is still raging, and is hourly gaining headway. Flame and smoke, driven by a strong current of air, is being blown from the shaft to the height of 100 feet above the ground. All efforts to check the fire have been of no avail. The mine is flooded. It is thought that nearly three acres of coal are ablaze. The entire plant will be suspended operations for several months, thus throwing 600 men out of employment.

ILLINOIS.

Choosing the Tea Room System. CHICAGO, Oct. 30. The best men in Morris & Swift's house signed a contract last night to resume the ten hour system, working Monday next. The wages paid per hour will be increased from 25 cents to 50 cents in comparison with wages received when working eight hours a day. The arrangement will be in effect for the next three months.

THE TRAIN HORROR.

The Responsibility for the Accident. The Inquest on the Dead Commenced.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 30. C. H. Wells, the freight brakeman who is charged with being responsible for the fatal railway accident at Rio on Wednesday night, has turned up. He came to the city yesterday, and visited the general office of the Great Northern Railway company and drew his salary. Wells is twenty-four years old and unmarried. He declares that the freight train was in motion when he was wholly responsible for the accident.

Brakeman Wells' Story. The following is the substance of his story. On Wednesday night, the freight train was in motion when he was wholly responsible for the accident. He was in the train when it was in motion and he was wholly responsible for the accident. He was in the train when it was in motion and he was wholly responsible for the accident.

POLITICAL.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

Fourth Massachusetts Democratic Caucus Agrees on a Candidate. BOSTON, Oct. 30. Seven more unsuccessful ballots were taken to-night by the Democratic caucus for the nomination of a candidate in the Fourth Congressional District, and the selection of a candidate is now left to the voters, to be made at the polls on Tuesday. The last ballot to-night, which was the 52nd taken by the convention, resulted: O'Neill 50, Martin 45, Dacey 45.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. Richard B. Wright was to-night nominated for Congress by the Democratic caucus in the Second Congressional District of this district. The caucus of the party of the Ballot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. Mayor Grace has issued a proclamation offering five hundred dollars for the apprehension and conviction of any person threatening, intimidating or bribing voters at the polls on election day.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

President Cleveland Gives the Cue to His Subordinates. NEW YORK, Oct. 31. At the Democratic State Convention, Chairman Charles F. Smith, who has received $500 from President Cleveland for the campaign fund and has received $1000 from the State of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

POLITICAL.

CONGRESSIONAL NOMINATIONS.

Fourth Massachusetts Democratic Caucus Agrees on a Candidate. BOSTON, Oct. 30. Seven more unsuccessful ballots were taken to-night by the Democratic caucus for the nomination of a candidate in the Fourth Congressional District, and the selection of a candidate is now left to the voters, to be made at the polls on Tuesday. The last ballot to-night, which was the 52nd taken by the convention, resulted: O'Neill 50, Martin 45, Dacey 45.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. Richard B. Wright was to-night nominated for Congress by the Democratic caucus in the Second Congressional District of this district. The caucus of the party of the Ballot.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. Mayor Grace has issued a proclamation offering five hundred dollars for the apprehension and conviction of any person threatening, intimidating or bribing voters at the polls on election day.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

President Cleveland Gives the Cue to His Subordinates. NEW YORK, Oct. 31. At the Democratic State Convention, Chairman Charles F. Smith, who has received $500 from President Cleveland for the campaign fund and has received $1000 from the State of New York.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30. The labor organizations of this city who endorse the nomination of Charles F. Smith for Mayor, had a monster parade to-night, with over 45,000 men in line. The police reserves were all held in the station, and the parade proceeded in files of ten and was two hours and a half passing a given point. The parade was a great success and the labor organizations were very much pleased.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Will Finish His Campaign Tour at Camden, N. J., To-night.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 31. Hon. James G. Thompson, who is on his campaign tour, will finish his tour at Camden, N. J., to-night. He will arrive at Camden at 8 o'clock and will speak at the Camden Hotel.

